Dear Drandaddy,

I hope you have a nice time. Please send me a letter and I hope you get well and get out of the hospital. And send me a present on March 21st because that is the first day of Spring and my birthday too. And if you buy me a pair of roller skates and please get Drandma too to go to Uncle Tom's farm and get a red flower. I will draw a picture on the other side for you. Please ask Bobby to ask Dinkie to make a punkin pie and send it down here, in Sabannam, Georgia.

WALKER

The above letter, was dictated by Walker Webb Watson, age 5 and typed by J.M. Watson age 33. The choice of words and the punctuation was the result of careful study of the English language by Walker Watson.

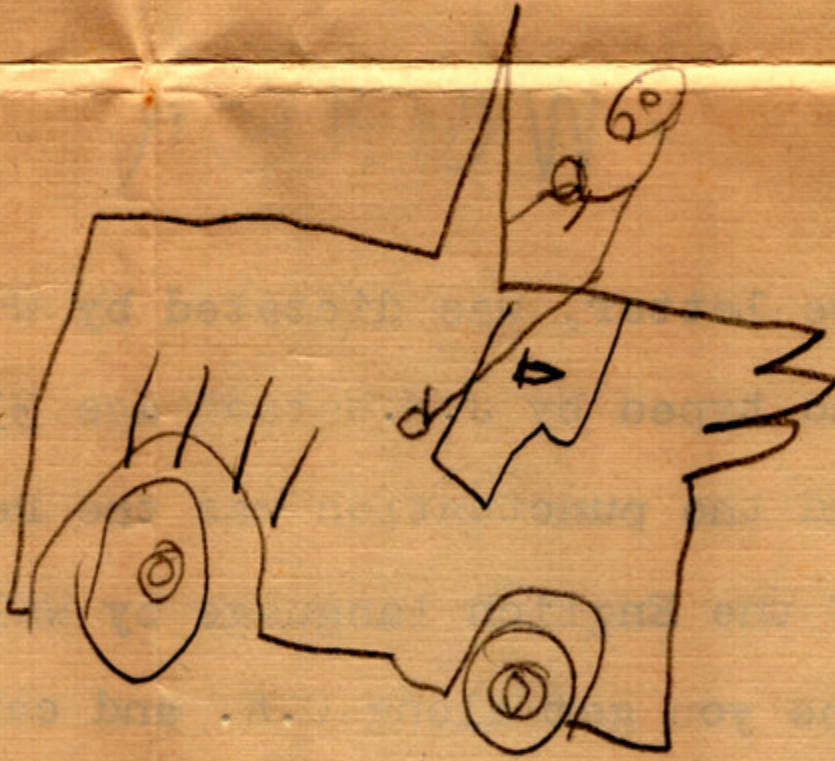

P.S. Hope you get along O.K. and can soon go home. Don't pay any attention to the stuff about roller skates and pumpkin pie, Walker will get skates from us when he is large enough and shows any interest.
